Land For Sale - 77 +/- Acres Tillable, expiring CRP and Woods - Culver, Indiana - Fulton County Culver, IN / Marshall County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

77 +/- Acres – Tillable, Woods & Recreational Ground in Fulton County, Indiana

Located just outside Culver in Fulton County, this 77 +/- acre property offers a rare combination of productive tillable ground, hardwood timber, and strong hunting appeal — all just minutes from Lake Maxinkuckee. This tract is a clean blank slate ready for a new owner's vision

Approximately 65 +/- acres are tillable, including 25 +/- acres currently enrolled in CRP set to expire this fall and 40 +/- acres currently being farmed — giving the next owner flexibility to continue more row-crop production, re-enroll in CRP, or transition acreage to habitat and food plots. A soils report shows a productive mix of Plainfield, Brems, Morocco, Newton, Metea, Wawasee and Gilford soils, with a weighted average corn productivity rating right around 101, in line with the county average — solid ground for row crops or hay.

The remaining 12 +/- acres are wooded with a nice variety of oak, primarily black, white and red, providing excellent cover and mast production. Deer sign is strong throughout, and the property offers good turkey hunting as well, making it an excellent candidate for a dedicated hunting property or a farm-and-recreation combo.

With its mix of tillable ground, timber, and multiple potential building sites, this property can be shaped many ways: a large-scale hunting property, a working farm, a future homestead, or all three. Convenient to Culver, Lake Maxinkuckee, and Monterey, with easy access off State Road 110.

Don't miss this opportunity to own a versatile piece of Fulton County ground. Contact Land Specialist Ty Mills, Mossy Oak Properties, for more information or to schedule a private showing. \(260\) 264-9134 / tmills@mossyoakproperties.com
