Your knowledge of the property prior to rownership may be relevant. In the case of a material defect, for example, if information that you possess indicates some sistent pattern of a problem not completely remedied, such information should be included in this disclosure in order to lieve full and honest disclosure. Your answers or the answers you fail to provide, either way, may have legal consequences after the closing of the sale. This questionnaire should help you meet your disclosure obligation, but it may not cover a fects of your property. If you know of or suspect some condition which would substantially lower the value of the property air the health or safety of future occupants, or otherwise affect Buyer's decision to buy your property, then use the space a end of this form to describe that condition.
17 18 19 20 21 22 23	COI discl inclu that Selle the	BUYER: THIS INFORMATION IS A DISCLOSURE ONLY AND IS NOT INTENDED TO BE A PART OF AN NTRACT BETWEEN BUYER AND SELLER. If you sign a contract to purchase the property, that contract, and not the losure statement, will provide for what is to be included in the sale. So, if you expect certain items, appliances, or equipment uded, you must specify them in the contract. Since these disclosures are based on the Seller's knowledge, you cannot be sure there are, in fact, no problems with the property simply because the Seller is not aware of them. The answers given by the er are not warranties of the condition of the property. Thus, you should condition your offer on a professional inspection of property. You may also wish to obtain a home protection plan/warranty. Due to the variety of insurance, requirements ducts, and arrangements Buyer should contact appropriate party to determine insurance coverage needed.
