PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Great opportunity to own a long-standing working cattle ranch in Pittsburg, Oklahoma with road frontage along State Highway 63. This productive pastureland has a strong history of agricultural use and offers the ideal setup for continued ranching operations or future investment potential. The property features good access directly off the highway, making transportation of livestock and equipment convenient and efficient. Utilities are available at the road (to be verified by buyer), providing flexibility for future improvements or development.

Please note: Sellers will retain mineral rights. There are active oil/gas wells on this property. The current tenant will remain in place through June 30, 2026. Feeding troughs and cattle panels do not convey with the sale.

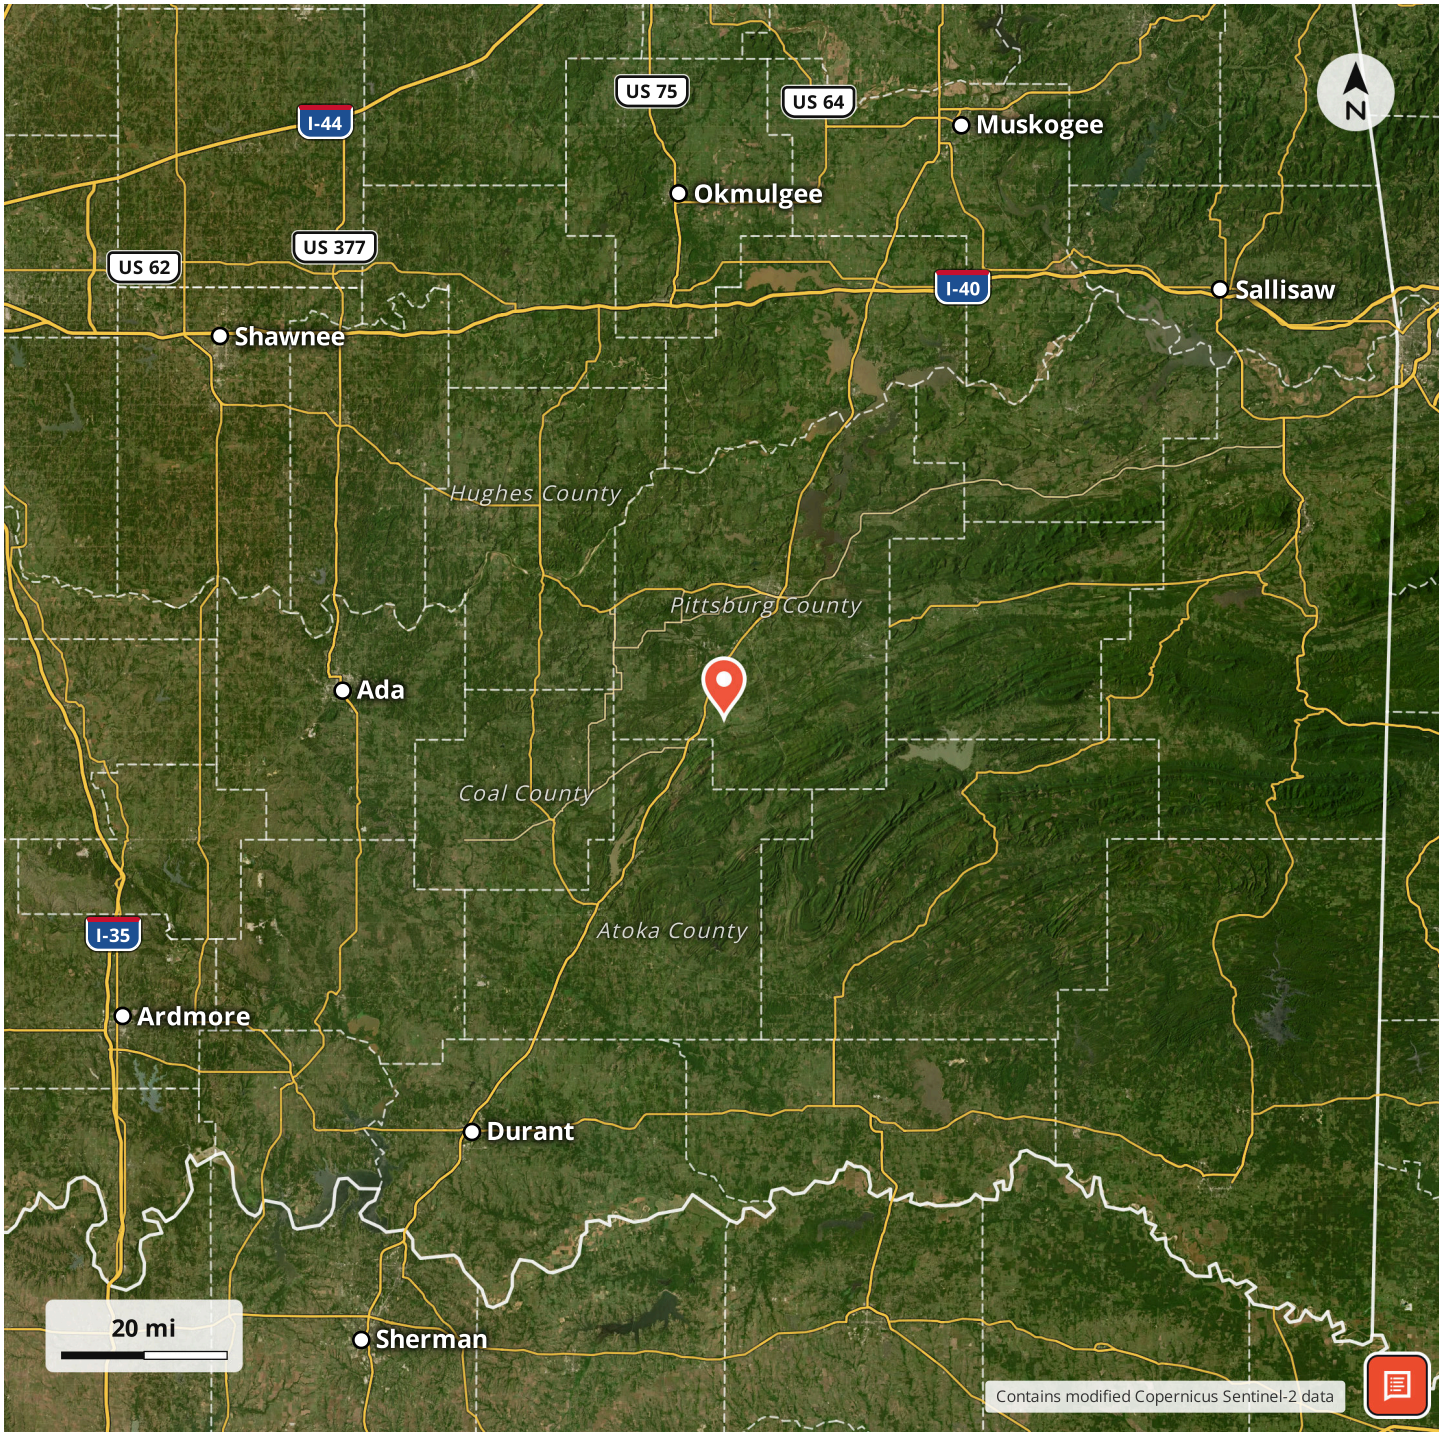

Whether you're expanding your cattle operation or investing in quality Oklahoma pastureland, this property presents a great opportunity for ranching and prime road access.
