WELCOME TO THE AMITE 281.90

INTRODUCING THE AMITE 281.90 - A PLACE FOR YEAR-ROUND RECREATION SITUATED IN THE COMMUNITY OF GILLSBURG, MS. The 281.90± acre property is located in southeastern Amite County, just west of the MS-568 and MS-584 intersection. The Tickfaw River is the eastern boundary, and Cuba Creek meanders down the western boundary, offering fishing, swimming, and arrowhead hunting. As an added bonus, this property is surrounded by large acreage parcels and offers a good mixture of merchantable pine and hardwood timber throughout. In addition to abundant wildlife, you will find an established trail system, food plots, and sloughs for the ducks. Two pipelines cross the tract from east to west, providing ideal opportunities to establish additional food plots. This land is an excellent choice to develop into your own great hunting tract.

If you are thinking about building your forever home or a cabin, the secluded Amite 281.90 is perfect! Power is available and provided by Magnolia EPA.

The property is conveniently located 15± miles southeast of Liberty, less than 50 miles northwest of Hammond, approximately 64 miles northeast of Baton Rouge, and barely over 100 miles from New Orleans. You could easily plan an afternoon hunt and enjoy being outdoors.

Call Lee or Alinda White to schedule a private tour of the Amite 281.90, where recreational opportunities are endless!
