WELCOME TO THE VAN BUREN 75

WELCOME TO THE VAN BUREN 75, LOCATED ON LONG FORK CREEK ROAD IN SPENCER, TENNESSEE. This 75± acre tract has incredible recreational opportunities with excellent wildlife habitat. The Van Buren County property is well suited for hunting, recreation, a weekend retreat, or a future homesite. With frontage on a county-maintained road and easy access just two miles from Highway 111, the property is convenient to reach while still offering privacy and seclusion.

Water is a key feature for all wildlife, and the Van Buren 75 has Lick Branch flowing through the land for nearly 2,000 feet, providing a reliable water source for wildlife. Several springs, drains, and wet-weather branches scattered throughout help create ideal habitat for deer and wild turkey. Fresh deer trails, rubs, scrapes, and turkey sign were found throughout the property. Van Buren County has long been known as one of Tennessee's better counties for hunting, thanks to its large blocks of timber, low development, and strong wildlife populations, and this tract is no exception.

MORE ABOUT THE VAN BUREN 75

While there are no vehicle-navigable roads currently, a network of old logging roads and trails runs throughout much of the property that, once cleared from downed limbs and new growth, will provide incredible access to the tract. Some areas will benefit from clearing and improvement; these roads provide a solid foundation for ATV trails, hiking paths, horseback riding, or hunting access. The rolling topography creates a diverse landscape with a mix of ridges, hollows, timber, and natural travel corridors that deer and turkey use throughout the year. The combination of water, cover, and food sources provides wildlife everything needed to thrive.

The Van Buren 75 is located approximately 15 minutes from Fall Creek Falls State Park and only a short drive from Spencer and Cookeville. Fall Creek Falls and the surrounding Cumberland Plateau are well known for producing quality deer hunting and some of the best turkey hunting opportunities in Tennessee. Whether you're looking for hunting land, recreational property, or a place to build and enjoy the outdoors, the Van Buren 75 offers solid features many buyers are searching for in Middle Tennessee land.
