PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

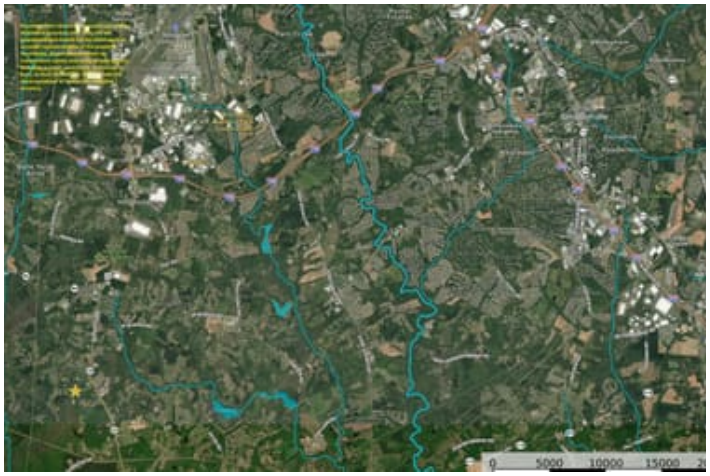

Discover a great opportunity to build your new home on this approximately 1.39-acre wooded lot in Greenville County. Located on Bismark Drive in the Pelzer area, the property offers a peaceful setting with mature trees, ample road frontage and gently rolling topography providing an attractive setting for a homesite. This lot has already been surveyed and perked for a septic system, taking two important steps out of the building process and public water is available in the area.

Enjoy the privacy and space of a larger residential lot without giving up convenient access to the amenities of the Upstate. Shopping, grocery stores, restaurants and everyday services are within an easy drive, while downtown Greenville's award-winning Main Street offers an outstanding selection of restaurants, shopping, entertainment and cultural attractions. Spend an evening dining downtown, enjoy Falls Park on the Reedy and the Swamp Rabbit Trail, or take advantage of the many events and activities Greenville has to offer. The property is also convenient to Pelzer, Piedmont and Simpsonville, making it an excellent option for buyers looking for a country setting with access to employment, shopping and dining throughout the Greenville area.
