PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

10-Acre Hunting & Recreational Tract - Prentiss County, Mississippi

If you're looking for a private hunting getaway or an affordable recreational property, take a look at this 10-acre tract in Prentiss County, Mississippi! This wooded property offers excellent opportunities for hunting whitetail deer, wild hogs, turkey, and small game. With plenty of natural cover and a secluded setting, it provides a great place to enjoy the outdoors and escape the everyday hustle. Nice hardwood creek bottom and two upland hills. There is a potential for development with electricity available along the county road.

The property features woods road access while maintaining a very private feel. An added bonus is its location adjoining a large timber company holding, offering the potential opportunity to expand your hunting area and enjoy even more recreational opportunities nearby.

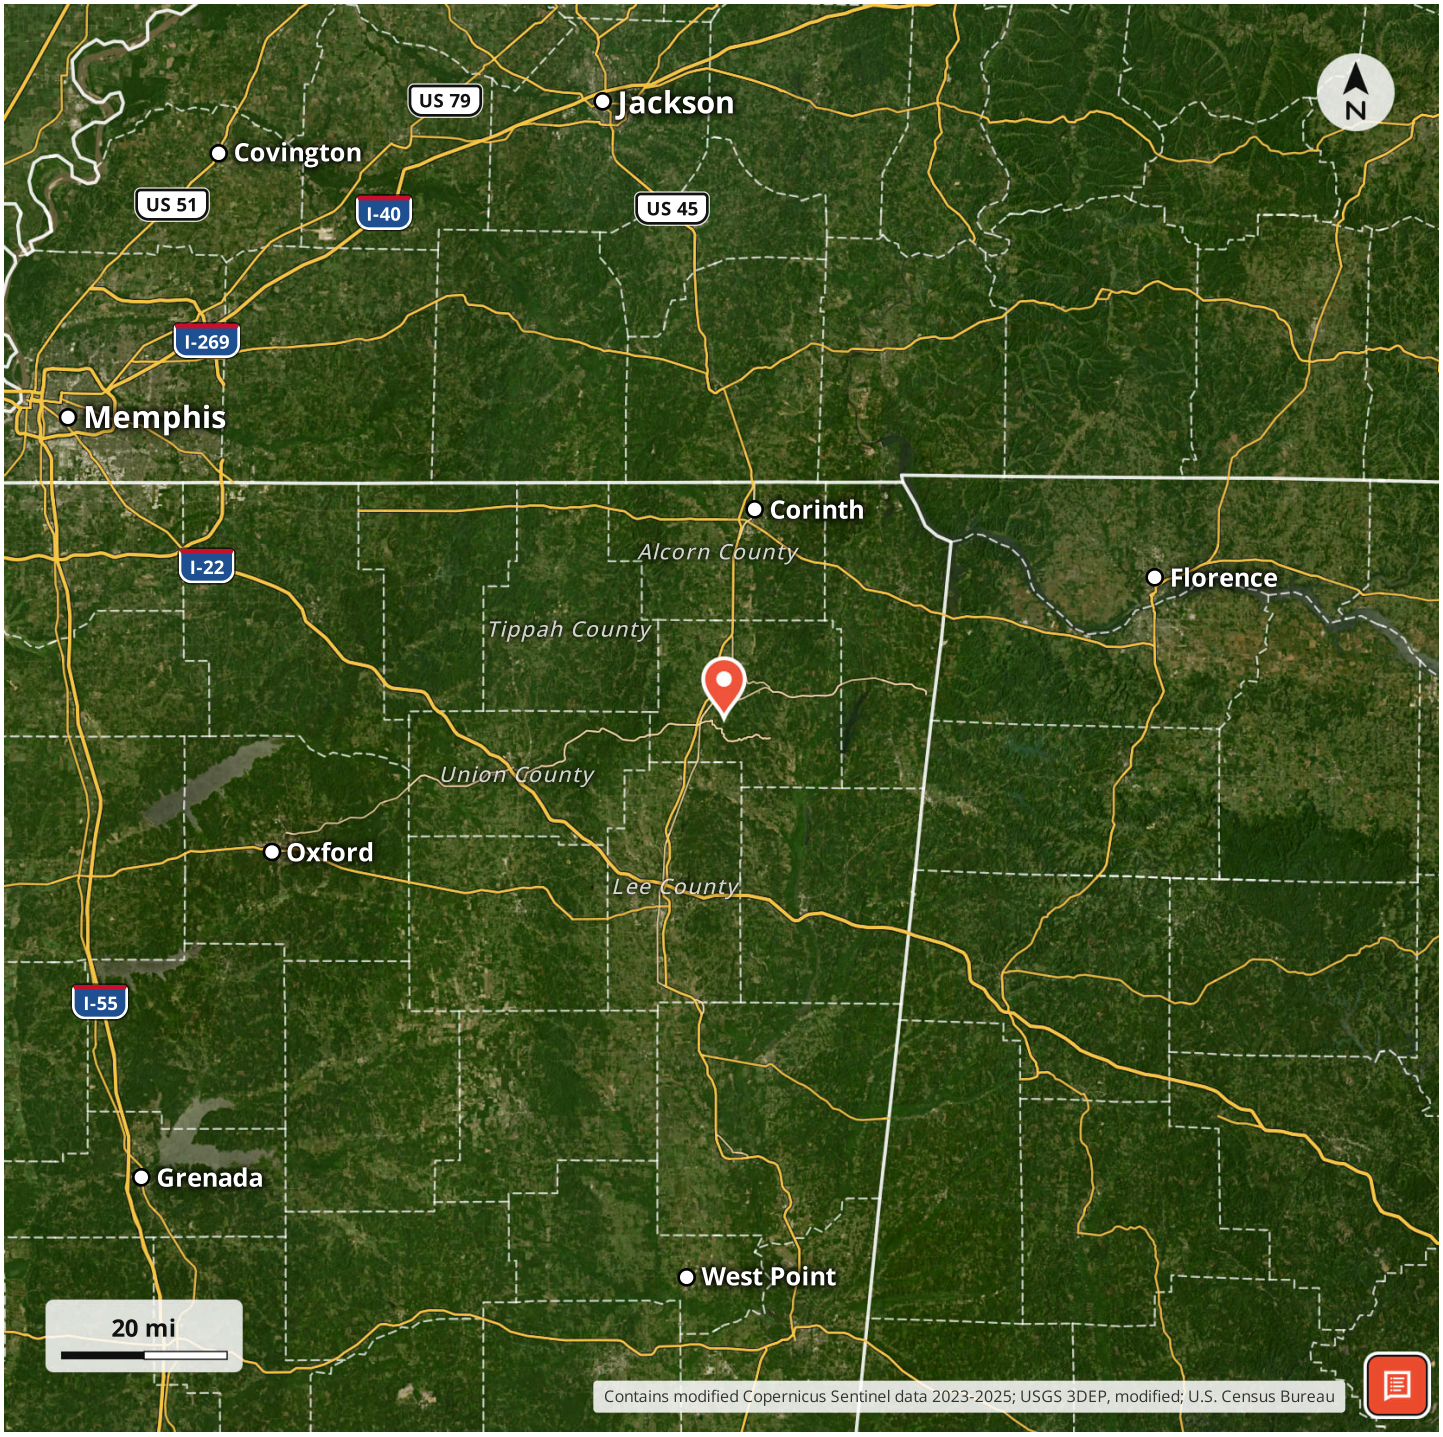

Whether you're looking for a small hunting property, a weekend retreat, or a place to enjoy the outdoors, this 10-acre tract is worth a look. Don't miss this opportunity to own your own piece of Mississippi hunting and recreational land!
