WELCOME TO THE BENTON 67.5

INVEST IN AN EXCELLENT SLICE OF TURKEY AND WHITETAIL PARADISE, KNOWN AS THE BENTON 67.5! Comprised of mature timber, brush, bedding thickets, and 1,600± feet of road frontage on Hardaway Chapel Road, this 67.5± acre Benton County property Cheka many boxes. With the soft access points from the remarkable road frontage, deer hunting is much less intrusive, and your odds are increased of harvesting one of the giant, mature whitetails that roam these ridges and slip into food plots. The internal trail system also makes it easy to navigate the tract and ambush the expansive amount of long beards strutting this timber. A small pond on the northwest border and a creek running along the eastern border offer the wildlife a year-round water supply. The deer and turkey numbers are incredible here. This property is turn-key, with multiple established food plots and shooting houses in strategic locations.

Not only can you make memories of a lifetime here, but there is great timber value along with a CRP contract which will be passed on to the new owner.
