WELCOME TO 122 ROSSON LANE

WELCOME TO 122 ROSSON LANE IN MENA, ARKANSAS. This 2.34± acre tract in Polk County is tucked away off a private lane, offering the peaceful country setting many buyers are looking for. A remodeled three-bedroom, two-bathroom mobile home sits on a permanent foundation on the northeast portion of the property. Details of the renovations can be found in the property information section. The home is currently serviced by rural water, and a drilled well is located near the house should a buyer choose to have the well completed.

The property is primarily open pasture with good grass, providing plenty of usable space for a small homestead, hobby farm, or a few livestock. Three sides of the property are fenced, while the fourth side features a partially constructed wood-post fence, giving a new owner the opportunity to finish it out to suit their needs. A small pond adds to the character of the property and could provide a convenient water source for livestock.

With a nice home, usable acreage, pasture, fencing, a pond, and a comfortable country setting, 122 Rosson Lane offers the opportunity to enjoy rural living while still having a manageable amount of land to maintain.
