This property is part of a new subdivision started in 2022. It has a grazing lease to keep taxes lower. The seller has built and graveled the access road and leveled and graveled a 200' X 300' pad area for a shop. A lot of excavation and leveling has been done, along with extensive cleanup. An old school building foundation and debris has been removed. The site has a fantastic view encompassing about 270 degrees and covers from the Spanish Peaks to the west end of Greenhorn Mountain. Pikes Peak is visible to the north and Fisher's Peak to the south. Gordon Ranch was part of a working coal mine property and is rich in history and artifacts. The property frequently has elk, deer, and antelope grazing and/or passing through.
