Property Overview

Located on a 15-mile section of South Carolina Scenic River, this is an opportunity to own a rare southern jewel. The property is comprised of planted pines, upland pasture and mature hardwoods. Food plots are ready for fall planting. There is a well and electrical service to the hay barn. With the purchase of the entire acreage, the property will connect on Wilkinson Highway and Highway 211.

This part of southern Cherokee County contains many large contiguous tracts and several historical homes. Accessible from Charlotte and Spartanburg, this property could become the hunting or equestrian getaway your family will treasure for generations.
