WELCOME TO THE LAMAR 29

WELCOME TO LAMAR 29—THE IDEAL BLEND OF COUNTRY LIVING AND OUTDOOR ADVENTURE! Discover a picturesque 29± acre property located in Lamar County, Georgia, just north of Barnesville and a little over an hour south of downtown Atlanta. This unique tract offers the perfect setting for your dream home, combined with the versatility of a private outdoor retreat.

Situated on gently rolling terrain, the property features multiple homesites, including a scenic hilltop location with sweeping open views. Modern utilities are in place, including public water, power, and high-speed fiber Internet, making it convenient to start building your home right away. A well-maintained internal road loops throughout, perfect for ATV/UTV exploring while enjoying the natural beauty and local wildlife. Outdoor enthusiasts have access to a shared pond and flooded timber, ideal for duck hunting and fishing. The mature wooded areas are ideal for deer, turkey, and hog hunting. Prairie Creek flows along the northeastern portion of this tract, adding a peaceful ambiance and a quiet place to relax.

MORE ABOUT THE LAMAR 29

The Lamar 29 also benefits from its prime location within a growing area, being just minutes from the up-and-coming Legacy 75 Trade Center and the new regional airport, which is in the planning stages in Griffin, roughly 12 miles north. While the area continues to develop, this property still maintains its charming rural character, offering the best of both worlds. Additionally, McDonough is approximately 30 minutes away, offering access to dining, shopping, entertainment, and medical facilities.

Whether you're looking to build a forever home, a weekend getaway, or an outdoor paradise, the Lamar 29 offers unmatched potential.

Contact Phillip Vogler today to schedule a private tour and enjoy recreational activities year-round!
