PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

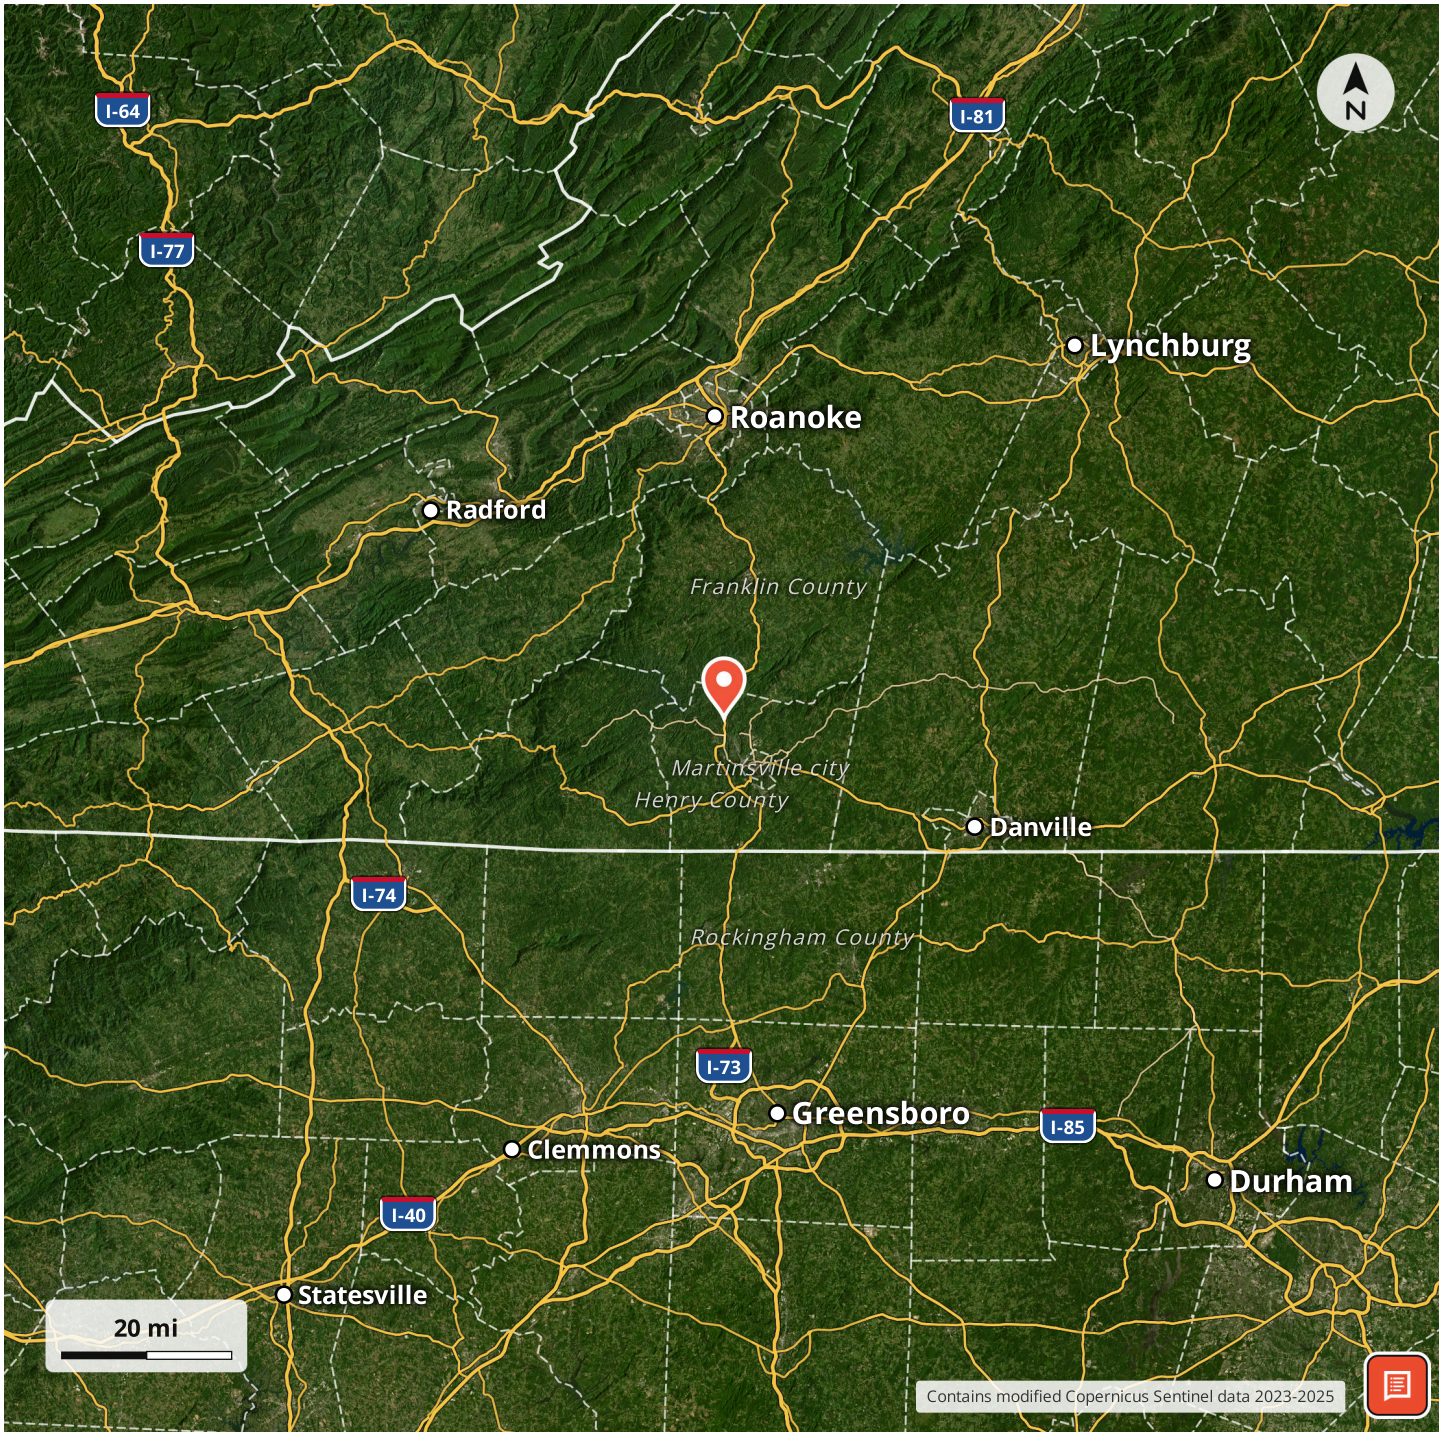

Looking for a quiet patch of Virginia countryside to call your own? This 0.91-acre vacant parcel on Jessteen Lane in Bassett, Henry County, Virginia, is zoned Agricultural (A-1) and ready for your next outdoor project, whether that's a weekend getaway, a future homesite, or simply land to hold. The property sits at roughly 1,000 feet in elevation in the rolling hills of south-central Virginia, and county records show it is not located in a flood zone. There's no HOA here and no recorded deed restrictions, so you have flexibility in how you use the land. Power lines run along the road frontage and nearby homes are already tied into electric service, which is a helpful head start if you're planning to build. There is currently no well or septic system on the parcel. An adjoining 0.79-acre parcel is also available separately, so you can buy one or both to build up to roughly 1.7 acres. If you've been searching for an affordable foothold in Henry County, Virginia with public road frontage and room to spread out, this parcel is worth a look. Reach out today to learn more or to make an offer.
