Water

Powderhorn Ranch possesses an intricate stock water system that has been set up with three wells, and over 20 miles of underground piping supplying water to over 50 livestock water troughs scattered across the Ranch.

There are also 11 storage tanks ranging in capacity from 2,500 gallons to 18,000 gallons.

Furthermore, the seasonal Reliz Creek traverses the center of the Ranch in a north-south direction. There are also numerous seasonal ponds and two springs.

Acreage & Zoning

Powderhorn Ranch is comprised of 9 certificated parcels encompassing 4,356± acres, zoned Pasture.

The Ranch is covered by a Williamson Act Contract, often referred to as the Ag Preserve. Generally, the Ag Preserve contract limits the land usage to agriculture or related open space uses in exchange for reduced property taxes.

Positioned within Monterey County, the 2023/2024 property taxes were approximately $25,115.
