LOCATION

Lexington Hilltop Farm is located at 1532 County Road 337, Lexington, TX 78947. The two entry gates on the property are solar powered and open automatically with a clicker.

- 5.5 miles west of Lexington • 53 miles from downtown Austin
- 54 miles from College Station • 127 miles from Houston

Road Access: The property has approximately 1,000 ft of road frontage on gravel-surfaced County Road 337.

TOPOGRAPHY, RANGELAND & HABITAT

The property features a well-maintained landscape and habitat, characterized by gently sloping terrain, post oak trees, and a blend of loamy and sandy soils. Elevations range from 490 ft to 510 ft above sea level. The fenced homestead area boasts meticulously manicured grounds. Located outside of this area, there is a good mix of wooded and open areas providing habitat for a variety of native wildlife species. The natural tree coverage outside of the interior cross fencing enhances the privacy of the compound. There are 2 continuous troughs on the outer area, maintained by floats.

WILDLIFE

Native wildlife typical of the area includes white-tailed deer, gophers, feral hogs, coyotes, raccoons, and various birds.

The current flock consists of guinea fowl for insect control and chickens & ducks for egg production.

IMPROVEMENTS

The thoughtfully designed luxury living compound features:

Main House: Completed in 2021, this 1,440 square-foot home includes a spacious bedroom, two bathrooms, and a screened porch/mudroom complete with an outdoor shower. AREA HISTORY

Lexington, a small town in Lee County, is known for its cattle trading heritage and is home to Snow's BBQ, which was voted the best BBQ in Texas by Texas Monthly. Lee County is still heavily focused on agriculture, particularly cattle ranching, and also continues to be a popular destination for those seeking a peaceful rural lifestyle. Its prime location in Central Texas with proximity to Austin & Houston makes it an attractive area for commuters while maintaining a strong connection to its agricultural roots.

TAXES

The property is under a wildlife exemption – 2024 Lee County Property Taxes: $1,936.

OTHER

Adjacent property is available for sale – see agent for details.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

2-10-2025

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
