Discover 41.98 acres of quintessential Old Florida countryside, where sprawling native pastures, majestic grandfather oaks, and towering pines create a picturesque landscape. Expansive open spaces are complemented by beautiful stands of mature trees, offering a wonderful balance of shaded areas and open grazing land.

A natural creek, part of the South Prong of the Alafia River system, winds through the property, adding to its scenic beauty and natural character. The combination of native vegetation, established trees, open pastureland, and a natural waterway captures the timeless appeal of rural Florida.

Whether envisioned as a private country estate, recreational retreat, or working ranch, this remarkable acreage offers an opportunity to enjoy the beauty, privacy, and wide-open spaces of Florida's countryside.

A rare opportunity to own a substantial piece of Old Florida, where natural beauty and rural charm remain the defining features.
