MORE ABOUT THE COPIAH 15.3

The downstairs primary suite provides comfort and convenience with double vanities, a jetted soaking tub, and a tiled walk-in shower with a glass enclosure. Upstairs, the second primary suite offers a more private retreat, complete with its own balcony overlooking the property. Heated tile bathroom floors, separate his-and-her bathrooms, a freestanding soaking tub, a tiled shower, and walk-in closets complete the space. Four additional bedrooms are thoughtfully arranged with Jack-and-Jill bathrooms on both levels, each finished with tile flooring and granite countertops.

Separate from the main residence, a detached two-car garage includes dedicated office space along with a private apartment above, providing flexibility for guests, extended family, or a home-based business. The property is further complemented by a separate four-bedroom, two-bath guest house, creating additional accommodations for family, visitors, or potential rental opportunities.

Outdoor living is equally impressive. A gated entrance and concrete driveway lead to the home, where a brick courtyard, welcoming front porch, multiple rear porches, and two concrete balconies connected by a metal staircase create inviting spaces to gather and enjoy the surrounding landscape. Mature oak and pine trees provide shade and privacy, while high-speed internet offers the convenience of modern connectivity in a rural setting.
