9.61 acre Potential Homesite and Timber Land For Sale in Greene County NC! Farmville, NC / Greene County

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Discover a beautiful timber tract in Greene County offering privacy, nearly 10 acres of wooded land, preliminary septic suitability, a cleared access, installed driveway tile, and a brand-new survey-all conveniently located southwest of Farmville and within easy reach of Greenville, NC.

Discover 9.61 acres of wooded land offering privacy, homesite potential, and a convenient location just southwest of Farmville in Greene County, NC. Located off Cupelo Road, this tract provides an excellent opportunity for someone looking to build a home surrounded by mature timber, establish a private recreational retreat, or invest in a manageable piece of land with improvements already in place.

A preliminary site evaluation has identified an area suitable for a septic system, helping provide a foundation for future residential plans. Access to the property has already been improved with a forestry mulcher, creating a cleared entrance into the tract, and a driveway access tile has been installed to assist with future development. A brand-new survey is also available, giving prospective buyers clearly defined acreage and boundaries.

The property's location offers the peace and privacy of rural Greene County while remaining conveniently positioned near Farmville and the amenities of Pitt County. Farmville provides nearby shopping, restaurants, schools, and everyday conveniences, while Greenville is within an easy drive for additional employment, healthcare, entertainment, and retail opportunities. The property's location also provides convenient access to major travel routes throughout eastern North Carolina.

With nearly 10 acres of wooded land, established access improvements, a recent survey, and preliminary septic suitability already identified, this property gives buyers a head start compared to many undeveloped tracts. Whether you are looking for a private homesite, a country retreat, recreational property, or a long-term land investment, this Greene County tract offers an attractive combination of location, acreage, timber, and development potential.
