PROPERTY DESCRIPTION.

This over 20-acre agricultural land located in Double Bayou, TX, is an excellent opportunity for those seeking to own a property with ample space for farming, livestock grazing, and other agricultural activities. Located east of Houston and just 20 minutes south of I-10, this land is easily accessible and convenient for transportation. The property boasts a level topography and is predominantly composed of sandy loam soils. The land is currently undeveloped and has no structures or improvements, allowing for a blank canvas to create the perfect agricultural operation. It is well-suited for a variety of crops, including cotton, rice, and corn, and can also support livestock operations, such as cattle or horses. The property's location in Double Bayou also presents a unique opportunity for recreational activities, including hunting and fishing. The land is situated in close proximity to the Trinity River and the East Bay, offering abundant opportunities for fishing enthusiasts.
